

OF A SCHOOL OF CITIZENSHIP OPEN JULY 19

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., July 9. (Sp.)—The program for the School of Citizenship, to be held at the University of Arkansas July 19-23 by the general extension division in co-operation with the women of Arkansas, has been announced as follows:

Monday, July 19—Registration at the "Y" hut; address of welcome, Dr. A. M. Harding; "The Good Citizen," Mrs. T. T. Cotnam; "Legal Status of Women," Miss Eric Chambers; "City and County Government," Dr. D. Y. Thomas; "The Young Offender," Dr. J. R. Jewell; Dr. A. M. Harding presiding; reception.

Japs Fear Effect Of U. S. Ship Law

TOKIO, July 9. (By the Associated Press.)—During the session of the diet today the government was interpellated by the opposition on the subject of the new American shipping law. The interpellators expressed fear that this law might have a disastrous effect upon Japanese shipping. Government representatives replied that the government was making an investigation of the subject, but they added that the shipping interests must take the proper measures for their own protection.

TO REBUILD SCHOOL DESTROYED BY STORM

NEW ALBANY, Miss., July 9. (Sp.)—At an election held in the Ingomar school district of Union county here Wednesday the proposition of the board of supervisors to raise $10,000 in bonds for the erection and equipment of a modern schoolhouse building was voted through by a vote of 67 to 27. The action becomes almost a necessity because of the loss of the former schoolhouse in the severe winter which hit Ingomar on April 20, this year, demolishing the old house.

FORMER SENATOR IS VISITOR; PRAISES COX

"Success of the Democratic party in the national field this year is assured in my opinion," declared Former United States Senator Christopher B. Cox, Columbia, S. C., who was in Memphis Friday attending the conference of cotton men. "South Carolina can and will roll up a greater majority for the Cox-Borah ticket than in any previous election in many years."

CUT WORMS DESTROYING CORN IN MISSISSIPPI

NEW ALBANY, Miss., July 9. (Sp.)—There is much complaint in this section about the destruction of the late young corn by a cutworm, which eats into the budding corn and is devastating acres of the grain.

POSTPONE COURT TERM AT STUTTGART, ARK.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., July 9. (Sp.)—The regular term of the Arkansas circuit court for the Northern district, which was to have convened at Stuttgart next Monday, will be postponed until Sept. 20, Judge W. B. Sorrells announced. Monday, July 11, the court is said to be postponed, because many of the attorneys busy with their rice crops, and because the hotel at Stuttgart is being rebuilt and until the work is completed it will be difficult to find hotel accommodations.

FALLS OUT OF FRYING PAN INTO THE OVEN

Ira Smith, negro, convicted in criminal court and given 30 days in jail on charges of transporting stolen alcohol, was rearrested Friday morning by Stanley Tresevant, United States marshal, on federal charges growing out of the episode. He has been indicted by the federal grand jury for alleged violation of the prohibition amendment.

AMERICAN LEGION ASKS FOR SUFFRAGE ACTION

A resolution endorsing the suffrage amendment to the constitution and urging members of the Tennessee legislature to vote for it was adopted by veterans of the world war, known as Memphis Post No. 1, American Legion, at meeting Thursday night. The resolution, introduced by Commander W. M. Stanton, eulogized the part in the war as played by women and was passed unanimously.

SHE ASKS DIVORCE AND BIG DAMAGES

Pine Bluff Woman Sues Husband Who Killed Her Father

PINE BLUFF, Ark., July 9. (Sp.)—Mrs. Ellen Adams has not only entered suit for divorce from S. Mack Adams, 76, but has also sued him for damages, and her sister, Miss Alice Adams, shot and killed William Bruce, the father of his wife, on June 14, and the grand jury exonerated him of the charge of murder but the women allege that they are damaged by being deprived of the earnings of their father and they are asking $40,000 for damages alleged to have been sustained by the killing. They claim that their father contributed largely to their support.

GOVERNMENT EXPERT SLIPS IN, THEN OUT

Col. Charles Keller, of Washington, one of the expert engineers attached to the federal board of engineers for rivers and harbors, slipped into Memphis Thursday, conferred with local engineers and larger line officials, and then quietly slipped away from town Thursday night. With him were two civilian officials, who spent the time in Memphis accompanying Col. Keller on his conference.

WILSON PREPARING CALL FOR LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The call to be issued by President Wilson for the first meeting of the assembly of the league of nations in November is in preparation. It was said today at the state department, and will be issued within a short time.

CONFLICTING CLAIMS MARK CIGAR STRIKE

TAMPA, Fla., July 9.—Conflicting claims were made by manufacturers and cigar makers as to the number of men who returned to work this morning, following a reopening of the factories yesterday under the open shop principle. G. Martinez, secretary for the manufacturers' association, said several hundred men returned to their benches, while Joseph Muniz, secretary for the unions' joint board, claimed not more than 40 resumed work.

DRY JURISDICTION OF STATE COURTS ARGUED

BOSTON, July 9.—The question of whether the courts of Massachusetts lost jurisdiction of prosecutions made under its statutes for violation of the liquor laws when the eighteenth amendment went to the constitution of the United States took effect, was argued before the full bench of the supreme court today and on the answer depended at least 100 cases on the superior criminal court calendar.

DEPUTY POUND GUILTY.

SHREVEPORT, La., July 9.—A verdict of guilty without capital punishment has been returned by a jury in the district court at Homer, La., against Tom Shannon, a deputy sheriff of Calcasieu parish, charged with the murder of Pete Dunson, an oil field man, in the Homer field several weeks ago. Shannon claimed self-defense. The shooting took place when Shannon intercepted Dunson after Dunson had an argument with a negro workman. Shannon will be sentenced tomorrow, and a new trial will be sought.

CLAIM AGENTS MEET.

GALVESTON, Tex., July 9.—Claim agents of steam and electric railway lines in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana opened their ninth annual convention here today. One of the subjects that is to claim special attention will be grade crossing accidents and methods of reducing their frequency. The claim agents are giving attention particularly to the large number of automobiles involved in grade crossing accidents. The convention will continue through Sunday.
